PAULINE ALPERT

Pauline is one of our quiet girls. That is, she does not seem to have much to say. We have heard it said, however, that she is not as quiet as she looks. Pauline has always been loyal to '25 and has been quite a basketball fan. We know that whatever she intends to do next year will be done well.

Dot 1921

DOROTHY ARMS "Dot"

Dorothy is one of those girls, who are always more than welcome because of their quiet, unassuming natures, and dependable efficiency. Dot also appreciates a good joke. She and her dad never miss a single game in which Drury participates. Loyal supporters like these make a school honored. Next year holds terrors, as yet undecided, for her.

MARGUERITE BANKS "Peg"

"Peg" is one of our steadiest workers and she has applied herself more to studies than the frivolous ways of some members of the class. She has been faithful in preparing her lessons and has shown at every turn that she is a loyal member of 1925.

ALBERT BASHEVKIN "Al"

Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4

This dark-haired fellow with the winning smile is no other than "Al" Bashevkin. He has made a host of friends up here with that cheerful grin coupled with his willingness to help others. "Al" is another of the classical stars and delights in Cicero.

BEULAH WALLING BATES "Buddy"

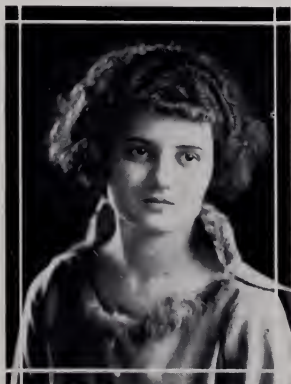

D. S. C. 4

Glee Club 4

Don't judge Beulah when she's wearing that D. S. C. band. You ought to see those blue eyes twinkle when she's off duty. Beulah, you know, breezed in from Pownal. It wasn't big enough to hold her. Her ever receptive brain required a higher place of learning, so here she is. Beulah will train to be a nurse next year. Take that twinkle along, "Beul".

Married(?)

ANNA BEAUDIN

Anna belongs to the petite members of our class, but although small in stature, she is big in heart. She has striven hard while at Drury and in the future we are sure she will uphold our standards.

GORDON BENOIT "Gordy" "Plumber"

Band 2, 3, 4

Orchestra 3, 4

Whenever "Gordy's" name is mentioned we think of two things, first, his exceptional ability on the saxophone and second, that black, shiny, patent-leather haircomb of his. Gordon is a member of the famous Saxophone quartet which has charmed audiences in New York and Washington as well as over the ether.

M. Benoit

FRANCES BERNARD "Franny"

Pro Merito 4

Dramatic 4

Assistant Editor Academe 4

Assistant Director Class Play 4

Associate Editor Class Book 4

Frances bobs around Drury like a cake of Ivory in a stormy bathtub. She and the manufacturers of hair groom have one feeling in common: they both like shiny hair. As an assistant director in the class play she endeared herself on the hearts of the actors. She plans to enter Normal next year.

M. Bernard

HARVEY BIANCO "Harvey"

Band 2, 3, 4

Prophet on Prophets 4

Harvey's broad smile and perpetual laugh is known in all localities from the Boiler Room to the Chemistry Lab. He is renowned both as a tennis player and as a Chemistry shark. Although he has not the celerity of wit that is displayed by his partner "Charlie," Harvey can make the entire class quake with laughter at his wise cracks. He became entranced with the beauty of the South when at Washington and next year plans to enter Georgetown University.

Doctor

M. Bianco

Married '30

MARION SANFORD BISHOP

Teacher

Glee Club 4

Dramatic Club 4

Meet her, the lady with the school girl complexion. It doesn't come in a box, either. "Slow and easy," has been the motto that Marion has lived up to through all her four years in Drury. It was always her misfortune to be called on in Latin or in Greek for the very sentence she did not know. She always has a smile for you, and her friendship is true and lasting. Marion will go to Normal next year.

ROY BOHL "Bangs"

Basketball 4

Baseball 2, 3, 4

Roy may be seen running thru the halls during lunch period with a red band on his arm. This is direct evidence that he belongs to the royal order of D. S. C. While performing on Drury teams for three years, he has starred in Basketball and Baseball. Many times his eye for the hoop has helped us win the court games. On the diamond, his fine fielding and slugging were features. He is one of the best athletes in Drury.

Married June '32

Married '30

MARY LU BOND

Teacher

Glee Club 4

Class Vice President 4

That "You-all" of Mary's is misleading. You might think that she's from the South but you would be mistaken. It's western. She's fond of horseback riding, if you have ever noticed, and that and Scouting seem to be her only diversions; to tell the truth she doesn't think much of the men around here, she prefers the men from the "great open spaces," out where men are men and smell like "Camels". Next year she plans to attend the Normal Art School.

Married

ISABELLE BOUCHARD "Belle"

Band 3, 4

"Belle", as everyone calls her, is the girl with the big brown eyes. She has two great hobbies, dancing and hair dressing. We all wonder why she sits up and takes notice when someone mentions Adams. She is also one of the musicians of our famous band. After this year, she is thinking of having a sign made reading, "Mlle. Bouchard, Milady's Beauty Shoppe."

OLIVE BOUCHARD

Vice President, French Club 4

And here's Olive, one of the girls who has such a jolly laugh. She is ever ready for a good time and is well liked by her class-mates. Typewriting is her forte. The business field calls her.

married

Married - 1930

ETHELYN BOULGER

Pro Merito 4

Ethelyn can always be trusted, and on this account she shares many of her friends' secrets. She arrived at Drury, a quiet and unassuming maiden, but it wasn't long before she set things humming and she has kept everyone guessing since then. She does not spend all her time either in studying or in pleasure, but has held several responsible positions during her course.

married 1933

MARY ELIZABETH BOWMAN "Betty"

Pro Merito 4

Soccer 4

Academe Staff 4

This is the smart little girl of our class, one of those who help to uphold its scholastic standard. Betty believes in going to school to get that for which we are all sent. Yes, "Betty" can "parley vous" with the best of them, and could talk Cicero into wearing overshoes. Have you noticed that Betty's getting round-shouldered lately? Too many scout badges, we suppose. Betty surely believes in carrying off the honors.

Teacher
LORETTA MARY BREEN

Pro Merito 4

Service Corps 4

We have never heard Loretta disturbing the peace at Drury. She is always quiet and serious. She loves to work but in spite of this fact she seldom takes her books home. Loretta doesn't have to study hours and hours on her lessons as some of us do; and she usually receives better marks than most of us. She continually wears a friendly smile which she will take with her to Normal School next year.

married

married

DOROTHY BRESETT "Dot"

Glee Club 4

Here's "Dot", the girl who within a five minutes acquaintance can have you holding your sides with laughter. She's jolly, an all-around good sport, and never too busy too help you out. Her best friends live toward Greylock, and their w. k. "car," which they keep parked in the gym, is famed far and wide. Wherever Dot is, there is harmony, for has she not learned the art of assaulting the piano from Mr. Chambers?

Marion

MARION BRESETT "Marion"

Basketball 2, 3, 4

Soccer 3, 4

Glee Club 4

Here's Marion, one of the class's standbys. She may always be counted upon to be present, whatever the affair. Not only does she capture one, but many of the ever susceptible hearts of our males, and she has succeeded in completing her four years of classical work with no one the worse, though George has proved a valuable ally—especially in Math.

DOROTHY BRIGGS "Peanut"

Glee Club 4

Dot is a good sport. She is a queer combination of flighty nothings and weighty somethings. You never can be sure what is her guiding genius. Just when you are sure that she is a frivolous young creature you discover that she can be extremely sensible and judicious. Her ability to talk without saying anything is only offset by her ability to talk and say something.

Harriet 1925

HARRIET BRIGHAM

Everybody that knows Harriet likes her. She has a quiet, friendly disposition and a pleasing manner. Indeed, Harriet is so unassuming that some of us have just found out that she is a grown-up Senior. We know that Harriet's smile will never wear off, no matter what happens to her.

Married - 1930

FRANK BROWN

In Frank we have a business man of ability. He finds shorthand much to his liking. His ear-to-ear smile has won him many friends. Next year he is going to be a cashier. We understand that he likes a cashier's position. So easy, but he is absolutely honest. There is no chance of his going wrong. He has a very capable teacher in the lunch room cashier. No wonder he likes the profession.

MARY BROWN

1 student

We didn't know that a girl could be so quiet and at the same time be so much fun and such excellent company until we knew Mary. No one can doubt that she is a good sport for she never hesitates to take a dare or go thru with it. Mary intends to climb the hill to Normal School next year and when she becomes a be-spectacled pedagogue we are sure she will be a favorite.

Married 1934

Died 1930

ELLEN BUCKLEY "Ella" "Buck"

Whew! What a breeze! No, that wasn't a breeze. It was "Ella" running to school, practising for the Marathon. She starts at thirty seconds of eight and sometimes she makes it. The "Three Musketeers" are fast anyway. "Ella" has been trying to make the teachers laugh ever since she came here, but they never seem to see the joke. Ellen is undecided about next year, but "good luck" in whatever you choose, Ellen.

BREWER BURNETT

Pro Merito 4
Band 3, 4

Class Book Staff 4
Class Play 4

When we hear the ivories rattle, "Alabama Bound", and the like, we know that Brewer is near, ready and willing to show his musical ability and cheer us. He must be quiet and distinguished-looking for the text of "Dulcy", says that Mr. Blair Patterson must follow the above description. We feel, somehow that he will never get very far away from a piano even if his profession is piano moving, but there is always his baritone to fall back on literally at least. He has helped the Drury Band in making itself known by his splendid playing on the aforesaid instrument.

MARGARET SUSAN BURNETT "Peg"

When Peg is aroused, we are always sure of some fun. She doesn't shirk her school work, and is always at the top of the Honor List. We all know that she isn't as noisy as most of us. She can make people know she is alive and she frequently does. Margaret intends to go to Normal School next fall.

RUTH CARR

Like many other Druryites, Ruth has been considered quiet, but her good spirits make her well liked. She saw fit to forsake us for the sake of her father's business.

GEORGE CARSON

George is another boy who journeys daily from Briggs-ville to Drury in an apparently never ending pursuit of knowledge. Although in the last year George has grown tall, it is not from excessive study. His great hobby is his unquenchable desire to match pennies. Beware however if he is in union with his namesake for in some strange manner you will repeatedly loose. Because of his pleasing nature he has made many friends with both boys and girls. We will miss him.

HAROLD LESLIE CARSON "Kit"

Kit is an athlete, there is no getting away from it. Anyone who saw him romping with the Methodists last winter at the Y. M. C. A. would have to admit it. In "Chem." Kit has shone again and again. He is a likeable chap, being quiet and industrious, and, for a youngster (wait till he reads this) not very mischievous. Next year his teachers, especially the chemistry teacher, will miss him. Although he has not shone as a ladies' man we have heard on the q. t. that a certain maiden's love, which was only a small spark, has burst into flame. We'll admit that there is a reason. We will miss him, I am sure, for he is always ready for a good time.

Married

GLADYS CHILSON "Chili"

Basketball 2, 3

Soccer 3, 4

Glee Club 4

Here's "Chili", the basket-ball star. Did you ever see a tall girl with cheeks like pink rose petals (and it's natural) pacing the halls? It's Gladys; she's not afraid of anyone and doesn't care who knows it. Armed with an abundance of good cheer and an unfailing sense of humor, she should make the world step along. If these characteristics are essential in the nursing profession, Chili will surely make a fine nurse when she gets to Brooklyn.

married

HOWARD CLARK "Tiekie"

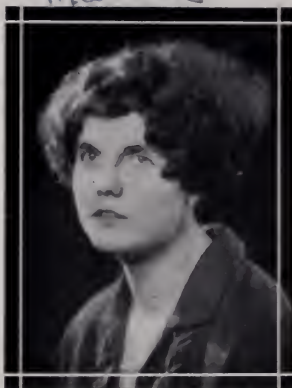

Baseball 3, 4

Mgr. Basketball 4

Howard is the Barney Oldfield of Drury, and since he bought his "Chevie" he has stopped paying trolley fare to Blackinton. Next year "Tic" will clean up the town by engaging in a little laundering on his own hook. His teachers will certainly miss his wise cracks and innocent air. During the basketball season he was Mr. Sullivan's right hand man and helped a lot in subduing the cops under his care.

MARTHA ISABELLE CLARK "Issy"

"Issy" is the girl lawyer of our class. She could argue Coolidge into believing his name is spelled with a "K", to say nothing of how she argues with Miss Graham. We are all sorry for "Issy". She is one of the "Three Musketeers" and she isn't half appreciated. She is afflicted with a terrible disease. The doctors call it spring fever but we aren't so sure because it bothers her all year round. Isabelle is going to train to be a nurse next year.

married

Died 1939

IRENE CLERMONT

Basketball 4

Pro Merito 4

Irene is one of those fortunate individuals who are clever in more ways than one. She helped make the Senior Girl's Basketball Team successful. She attained that select society, the Pro Merito, and she proved her wonderful business ability in the Commercial Department. But when all these things have been forgotten, we will always remember Irene as a straight-forward, frank and altogether jolly girl.

KATHERINE CODY "Kay"

Band 2, 3, 4

Pro Merito 4

Secretary of Band 4

Orchestra 4

Exchange Editor "Academe" 4

Katherine, the girl with the big blue eyes and ever-ready smile, is our honored secretary of the band and in this capacity has been a great help. Mr. Chambers himself will vouch for her. As Exchange editor for the "Academe" she again proved her value and staunch dependability. Next year she intends to travel down the road to Normal School.

EDITH COOPER

Pro Merito 4

Edith is another girl who felt the call of the business world, so the Commercial department is the only place where she is well-known, for she only came here last year. But she is liked there, so she must have a pleasing manner. We feel sure that she will make a first class stenographer.

DONALD COUGHLIN "Don" "D"

President Tennis Club 3, 4

Class Play 4

Football 3, 4

Class Book Staff 4

Whether the nonexistent muller on his "tin six" or whether "Tank's" resounding blows signal "Don's" approach, we are always sure that he is coming. As "Bill" in "Dulcy", "Don" immortalized the line, "the possibilities are enormous". As the undisputed school tennis champion, he has inspired fear and reverence with his terrific "lofts", while football lines have crumpled under his weight. E'er as a gay Lothario his conquests have been many. Certes, "he's a charming man and very successful".

Married 1931

NATALIE COXEN

Pro Merito 4

Glee Club 4

Natalie never could be judged correctly by the appearance she presents to the world. One would think she is a meek, unassuming little maid, but, as her friends have found out, she is quite the opposite. There are two ways in which Natalie is bright. She is always ready for a good time, and she can achieve good marks on her report card. Natalie does not believe in the twelve hour day that has been imposed on the classical Seniors, and at times she fairly bursts with indignation over this subject. She plans to enter Wellesley next year.

ETHAN EVANS CRAWFORD "Eth" "Chesty"

Band 3, 4

Here is our own Bernard McFadden, the exponent of physical culture. Anyone in need of an inspiration should watch "Eth" do his daily dozen. Without a doubt his method will succeed that of the late Walter Camp when it becomes more generally known. Since last year's class graduated, no one has seen "Eth" with a girl very often but, at vacation time he wears a path down Quincy St. He has played a clarinet in the band and has materially helped in making the name of that organization. When in Washington he probably tried out "Cal's" famous electric horse, but he remains silent on the subject.

Chemistry Prot.

MARY LOUISE CREWS

Mary is one of the members of the so-called "quiet group". But it is her nature just as her sweet disposition which has brought her many friends. In the fall, along with many other Drury girls, she will enter Normal.

married

GEORGE CROSIER "Brud"

Band 3, 4

Football 4

"Brud" is the lady killer of Study C. When he is not riding around in his car? killing chickens; he may be found at the home of a Braytonville vamp. He played a "Sax" in the band until he got tangled up in a Tuba. "Brud" has also helped the name of Drury stand out in the field of sports by his ability on the gridiron. He protected his side of the line in "All-American" style.

RUTH CURTISS

Pro Merito 4

Mr. Smith wants "the cream of the high school". He certainly will get it, for Ruth is going there. She has filled her head with knowledge, and has not spilled it by talking too much. We know that she will achieve success as a pedagogue.

Ruth

RACHEL CUTLER

Rachel is the little girl who goes around with the ever-ready giggle. We often hear it in fourth period English. Rae likes to tell amusing orals. She really is the star storyteller in our class. Where do you get such good ones, Rae?

RALPH DAWE "D"

Class President 4

Student Council 3, 4

Class Play 4

Manager Football 4

Pro Merito 4

Class Book 4

President of Council 4

Ralph has been especially prominent during his senior year in many school activities. His ready wit along with considerable good humor have made him a favorite with the entire class. This is very true in regards to the girls as is shown by their vote proclaiming him to be the most popular boy, best-looking, and several other such honors. To say the least Ralph is quite a "sheik" on the dance floor. 'Tis there he shines with all the fair sex. Although no "grind", he has done well in his studies and leaves Drury a friend with all the teachers. As our class president Ralph has done his utmost to please all its members and to make the class of '25 one to be admired and respected by all.

CARMEN DE FONZO "De Carmen" "Carm"

Basketball 4

"Carm" came from St. Joseph's and helped the Basketball team materially. Because of his fine all-round work, the burden that lay on the massive brain of "Genial Bill" was considerably lightened. He enjoys the second period class, for he can get the fine points in chemistry by sifting the facts thru a sieve. The so-called weaker sex can tell you that his line will get him anywhere.

Married

Married

JOHN DEL NEGRO "Johnny Del" "D"

Football 3, 4

"Johnny" is one of the most well known fellows in school, first because of his athletic ability and also on account of readiness to fool or crack a joke. He has a friendly happy-go-lucky disposition. Although he is an athlete of note in all sports, football is his favorite. School and Johnny have not always agreed but when he could effect a compromise with Mr. McGrory things went along more smoothly for a while. He journeys to St. John's next fall.

200000

Russell Sage 1939

M. A. Dibble

JANET ELIZABETH DIBBLE "Dib" "Ed"

Pro Merito 4
Dramatic Club 4

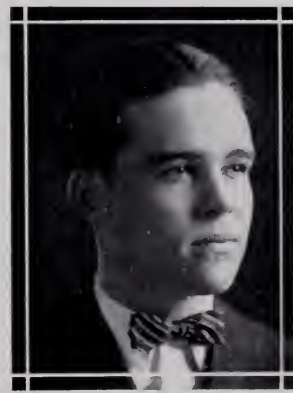

Tennis Club 3
Basketball 3

Here is the whole class of Drury girls in one; Janet not only excels in sports but a dance or a prom would be incomplete without her. She is a favorite with the teachers and her classmates too. One of her greatest assets is the wily fascination she has for the opposite sex. Scarcely a boy in school who hasn't fallen hard for "Dib". Next year she intends to go to Russell Sage and if she continues to be the same All-round good sport that she is now success will surely be hers.

JOHN MALCOLM DICK "Jack"

Senior Play 4 Classbook Staff 4

"It's a Mr." —Sterrett. "Jack" as that redoubtable gentleman in "Dulcy" smoked "C and Gs" to his heart's content and watched Bill Parker and Vincent Leach elope with Angela, to his mind's discomfort. But since he is our champion "Lady Killer", we feel sure that when the time comes for him to speak his mind, "Jack" will not have to wait in the library, or be thought, "impossible" by his lady-love. Nor do we feel that he, "ought to go some place and learn about girls". Indeed we believe it is more than likely he has a "sentimental interest" in them.

married

Married 1931

IRMA DAL DOS

Irma's ability as a mixer is overshadowed by her ability as a store keeper so that only the fortunate ones that patronize her store know her well. But we can honestly say that we are sure she will uphold the honor of Drury in all her undertakings.

Married - June 1929

ALICE DOWD

Alice is never late for school, because she always has to get up early. They do that on farms. Her four years at Drury have not been crammed with excitement, but nevertheless she has been through the mill. Next year she will enter the field of "caring for the sick."

HELEN DOYLE

Helen is one of our brightest and merriest girls. She has a smile for everyone and is always ready to help anyone. It is a strange fact, however, that Helen's smiles like to linger best upon one member of the admirable sex who lives in Blackinton. We are not sure what her vocation will be but her personality will make her a star in her line.

MARY DUNCAN

Mary is one of our many girls from Blackinton who delight in giving the excuse, "The car was late." To some, Mary seems quiet and sedate, but to the Blackinton bunch she is known as a good sport and a sincere friend. As for cheerfulness, well, no one has ever seen anything but a smile on her face since she entered Drury. We feel sure that her sweet disposition will win her many friends.

DOROTHY DUPELL "Dot"

Dramatic Club 4

Here's the merry, happy-go-lucky "Dot", who hails from Blackinton. She holds that what's done, is done, regardless of how it's done. She has a cheerful, optimistic idea of life, but her hardest task in High School was to pronounce "veille" for the all-exacting Mr. Thomas. That task is accomplished now, and if she faces all her future difficulties as she faced this one, success will surely be hers.

MARY DURANT "Mary"

Clark

Mary seems to be one of the quieter girls to outsiders, but those who know her well are acquainted with her fun-loving spirit and her good-naturedness which has saved many a trying day up in "Chem." She is always willing to take a joke, and in her twinkling brown eyes, there lurks just enough mischief to make her beloved by her class-mates. She is undecided as to her future.

CAROL EBERT "Carol"

This is the only one of the boys of '25 that has poise. Carol's ambition is to own the Western Union, a company to which he has given his hearty support. He believes that people should act as turtles and live in their own shell. We all shall miss him and his chemical knowledge.

AGNES ELDER

Agnes is one of those quiet girls who always attends to their school duties first. But for all of this, she is jolly and likes a good time. Typewriting is Agnes' strong point. She is undecided as to what she will do next year.

JENNIE ELDER

Band 3, 4

One of the more quiet but not unimportant members of our class is Jennie. She has the distinction of belonging to Drury's most brilliant organization, the Band. That is an honor that a great many of us cannot claim. Just what Jennie will do in the future is not yet certain but perhaps some day we will hear of her as helping to make some other musical organization famous. Who knows?

RUTH GRACE ERICKSON "Eric"

Glee Club 4

From her class picture you would gather that she is an advertisement for Palmolive soap, but no, she is just Ruth. She has graced our halls with her presence for five years. Although it is her disposition to be shy, and quiet, her friends are numerous. She is one of the girls whom Mr. Smith calls, "the cream of the school", and intends to follow his suggestion, and enter Normal School.

ALICE GWENDOLYN EVANS

Pro Merito 4

Glee Club 4

That little girl with the glasses—that is Alice. Alice is small but when it comes to studying, she's "there". She was one of the fortunate ones who made the Pro Merito Club. Alice has a good voice which she has strengthened by hours of hard training. She plans to further develop it at the School of Music and Art in New York.

ROSE MARY FARLEY "Rose"

Glee Club 4

And here's Rose, the girl with the winning smile. Rose has followed the General Course while she has been with us, and she has made a host of friends. She is a member of the Girls' Glee Club, but her abilities do not run entirely along this line for her name has been on the Honor Roll nearly every month. Next year she intends to go to Normal School.

Teacher

CATHERINE FELIX

Catherine's gullibility certainly has not helped her much in getting thru Drury, but her sunny disposition has won her many friends. She has not taken much interest in the social side of school life, but has preferred to direct her attention to intellectual pursuits. We haven't heard any startling things about Catherine, but that is all the more reason why she should have a successful career.

MARGARET MARY FLAHERTY "Peg"

Class Book Staff 4

Basketball 3

Here's the girl with the curly hair and the smiling face. Peg is a great lover of athletics and she can be found on the sidelines at any of the games. But Margaret does more than watch the games, she plays, too, and won her basketball letters in her junior year. She has pursued the Secretarial course at Drury and at present is working at the Larkin Print. Margaret's ability to keep quiet should help her immensely in the business world.

HARRIET FLOOD "Fijii"

Pro Merito 4

Glee Club 4

Class Play 4

We never thought of "Fijii" as a "little Widgie" until we heard C. Roger Forbes call her that. But nevertheless Harriet lived the part, but it must have been hard with the vivacious personality that she has. Her passion for music may get the best of her yet, although we sincerely hope that it may not. "Fijii" certainly throws a "steamin'" heel at our Drury dances and somehow manages to get away with it. Next year she will enter Mt. Holyoke.

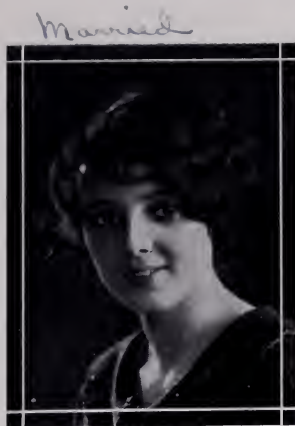

March 2 1935

NORMA FLORINI

Norma is one of the members of our class whom we feel we are not very well acquainted with. She is quiet always—except, perhaps when she is chewing gum. Norma has a very well developed temper for a girl of her size. Several of her teachers have learned what to expect when they see her head lift and a certain smile come into her face. Unfortunately, for Norma, however, they are not in the least afraid of her.

RUTH GAGNON "Ruth"

Dramatic Club 4

Class Play Staff 4

Ruth has not spent all her high school course at Drury for she was at a convent in Quebec for two years. She is pretty, vivacious, and feminine. While she is regular in tardiness she seems to possess the faculty of not suffering for the crime. Ruth's most conspicuous escapade during her high school course took place when she entered a movie contest and had her picture in the Boston paper.

ELECTA OLIVE GALLUP "Pops"

Glee Club 4

If curiosity denotes intelligence, Electa can be classed with Plato, Aristotle, and all the other prominent brains of history. The fact that this curiosity does not always extend to her lessons is immaterial. She is good natured and sympathetic, and with those qualities a great deal can be accomplished.

WALTER GALLUP "Walt" "Sink"

Basketball 3, 4

Treas. Class 4

Pro Merito 4

Here is the quiet, yet ever popular Walt. It is hard to believe that a person with such a gentle and retiring nature should not pass unnoticed during his school career yet here in Walter we have one whose four years have been a continual blaze of glory, which has come as the result of hard work on his part. Walt has played the game hard and he has played it as he made those spectacular shots in basketball, clean. With that same steadiness, that same persistence that has characterized his playing at Drury, he will "Come thru" in after life.

MYRTLE GARCELON "Mert"

Dramatic Club 4 Drury Traffic Corps 4
Property Manager Class Play 4

Myrtle came to us last year from Auburn, Maine. We are ail glad now that she did. Next year, the halls will seem very empty without her. She is undecided as to whether she will be a missionary, or an actress.

JOHN ARCHIBALD GARTMAN "Tun"

Drury Service Corps 4 Chairman of Decorating
Property Manager Class Play 4 Committee 3, 4
Class Song 4 Art Editor Class Book 4

"Tun" our interior decorator hails from "Billtown". He once resided in this fair city, but was moved up the line. However, realizing the value of attending Drury, he joined our ever swelling group of commuters. Who is not glad? For no Prom could have been a success without the help and advice of "Tun" in decorating. Further he has always been a lively stepper under the decorations. We feel safe in saying that in years to come the "Gym" will never look so beautiful as it has under John's directions.

CARLETON GREEN "Carlie"

Band 2, 3, 4

Here is the sheik of North Street! Even though one of the many at Drury "Carlie" does not confine all his activities to sheiking for he has rolled drumsticks since the band started. Another of his achievements is the holding of the position of floorwalker in one of our most modern stores. The secret of success, according to "Carlie" is perseverance, and that is his middle name. As one may already imagine, his greatest weakness is his fondness for the weaker sex. But Nix-on that.

RUTH GREENE "Ruth"

This is the girl who started out in her Freshman year to be such a little mischief, but who settled down to be one of our best business pupils. It is unfortunate that some of the members of the Junior class cannot find an object for their affections among their ranks, and so must deplete our ranks. Next year Ruth will take her place in the business world.

CHARLES VINCENT GROARK "Charlie"

Class Prophet 4
Baseball 2

Academe 4

"When 'Charlie' came to our town, the young chevalier", he had already passed his initial year in High School, and for this reason is one of the few Drury boys who know little of the interior of the coal hole. The names, "Loud Speaker", and "Horizontal", and the adjective, "Leather-lunged" have, for some mysterious reason, been applied to him. He showed the world that size was no bar to successful cheer-leading. His "Irish wit" was always a main feature in his steady popularity and he will always be remembered by those who are lucky enough to be in the class of Twenty-five, as a full-fledged comedian.

CONSTANCE HAIGH "Connie"

8 A. M.! "Connie" has not yet arrived. 8:03 A. M. and "Connie" quietly slips into her seat, and nods a pleasant, if sleepy, good morning. Everyone admires the way "Connie's" dimples play hide and seek with her frown. This remarkable phenomenon takes place whenever she says, "Let Florence do it."

FLORENCE HAIGH

When Florence starts to recite you may be sure there is a good laugh coming, for she can be serious if she tries. Though she has not worn herself to a shadow studying, she has managed to get by with points to spare. Florence is one of the members of the "Haigh Duet", "Leave it to sister," is her motto.

CLARICE SEWELL HALFPENNY "Clare"

Dramatic Club 4
Glee Club 4

Drury Service Corps 4
Pro Merito 4

Yes, this is Clarice, the girl who runs away with every new boy who ventures into town. She runs away with a great many "B's" too. She likes the lower part of Berkshire County pretty well; we wonder if the swimming in Cheshire Harbor is much better than it is in North Adams. Ask "Rog", he knows. After she finishes Normal School, she will enrich the teaching profession.

Married June '30

EDWARD HALL "Ed"

Whenever one thinks of Briggsville or Clarksburg, one immediately connects with it two inseparable pals. One has already been mentioned in the C's, and here is the other. Briggsville seems to breed lanky men. Why don't they go in for the Marathon? However "Ed" is not going into the art of long-distance running. He is going to be a "constable" like his father.

married 1933

BERNARD HAMBERG "Bernie"

Band 2, 3, 4

It is very seldom that we find a person in the Senior Class who has starred in three class plays. Yet we have one, and "Bernie" didn't have to spend three years in the Senior class in order to do it. He has always handled his part well, and his pleasant manner has won the hearts of all who saw him. However his audience has been small for "Bernie" has been a Head Stage Carpenter. He has been a "Stepper" at all the dances and his social prowess is undisputed.

RUTH MILDRED HASKINS

Glee Club 4

Orchestra 4

Band 2, 3, 4

Ruth is not only the class blonde, but also the class musician. Besides being able to handle the piano proficiently, she is, as Mr. Chambers can tell you, a fine clarinetist. The band, orchestra, and glee club all appreciate Ruth's talents. She is undecided as to next year, but we are sure that Sousa wishes her to join him.

SUSAN HASKINS "Susan"

Pro Merito 4

Class Book Staff 4

Susan does not affect the lighter side of school life but prefers to go in for studying. She is a star pupil, as all her classmates will testify. Her name has been on the Honor Roll every month. Next year she intends to enter Wellesley. She and Natalie have kept up a steady flow of conversation during the last four years and they will continue it at this higher institution.

Sunny, cheerful, dashing, and popular is Edith, better known as "Ede". A few bold persons even go so far as to call her "Red", a title she bitterly resents. She maintains with the rest of those whose crowning glory is of a crimson hue, that her hair isn't red but auburn. Because of her sunny disposition "Ede" is well liked by both boys and girls, pupils and teachers. She is extremely clever in class and her bluff usually gets by.

AGNES HENDERSON "Ag"

Class Play

Dramatic Club 4

Here's "Ag", who, with her big blue eyes and rosy cheeks is one of the reasons why Drury is famed far and wide. She made an incomparable "Dulcy", and the class of '25 is proud of her. She has ensnared the hearts of many, but only one bright star dares show itself on the horizon of Briggsville. Next year she hopes to enter Emerson, but she is as yet undecided.

Married 1928

Married

ALICE LUCILLE HICKS

Alice is one of those people who always has something very important to say, and therefore is indispensable to her table in the lunch room. Report has it that she is rather a rough personage and that to come near her endangers the life of anyone. However, for all the boxings she may give one, she is a peach of a good sport.

MARGARET FRANCES HIGGINS "Peg"

Pro Merito 4

Margaret, better known as "Peg", is a person we hear little about. She has toiled patiently all through her four years of high school, attaining honor marks and high standing throughout her entire course. Perhaps that is due to the fact that "Peg" is not very sparing of the midnight electricity. She has taken a business course. Next year we may find her pegging away at a typewriter or taking dictation in some office. She would like to be a private secretary, and we know she would succeed as such.

MABEL HOWARD "Miggs"

This little dark-haired, rosy-cheeked girl comes every morning from Blackinton. She is as jolly and light-hearted as anyone could wish. Who has not seen "Miggs" strolling down the hall, broadcasting smiles in every direction? Though she is a little girl, anyone who has played against her in basketball knows that she is a live wire.

MARTHA HYDE "Mart" "Marty"

Soccer 3, 4

Dramatic Club 4

Here you see the charming face of "Marty" which has become so familiar and welcome during our four years at Drury. "Mart" excels in basketball, swimming, and every out-door sport. She is a firm believer that "there is a tide in the affairs of men" and not many opportunities escape her,—she even led the cheering section in the gym on one never-to-be-forgotten night. She has kept her heart fairly fancy free, but nevertheless, Greylock holds strange attractions for her.

HELEN HUMPHREY

Helen is one of the star pupils of the Commercial section. She has realized that, all work and no whirl makes Helen a dull girl, and has made merry as well as acquired knowledge. She will make a perfect stenographer as soon as she learns to chew gum.

Married

CLAYTON HYNES "Clayt"

Clayt is just another member of the gang. On his first day of school he missed a period and consequently, he became acquainted with Miss Graham. He has never found out where that period went to. Clayt has made the "torn-trouser" excuse famous. When he graduates he will be missed by the faculty especially.

RALPH ILES

Glee Club 4

Orchestra 4

Here's a Werrenrath for you! We all have to agree that it was Ralph who kept the baritone part of the Glee Club from disgrace. Music comes naturally to him. He plays the violin in the orchestra besides blowing the bass horn on the taxi which we often see him driving about the city. If for any reasons Ralph becomes so disabled that he can not drive, he can easily earn a respectable living by posing for "Slickum" advertisements.

VERA VERNON ISBELL "Vee"

Band 3, 4

Soccer 4

Dramatic Club 4

Glee Club 4

This is Vera, the class coquette. She believes in men, and lots of 'em. One holds her heart for a week, and "poof", she's out for another conquest. She likes variety, we should say. Although she does not excel on scholarship, she has succeeded in her four years of work, and in making herself necessary to every class function. She will grace the halls of the New Haven School of Gymnastics next year.

ESTELLE JACOBS

We all envy Stell's thick, curly hair. She doesn't have to go to the hairdresser's to have it done, either. Stell was absent for a few weeks during her Junior year, but showed how plucky she was by making up all the work and catching up with her class. Not everyone would do that in the face of obstacles, and we certainly admire her for it.

PAUL JAYNE "Chick" "D"

Band 2, 3, 4

Class Play 4

Football 4

Just as other classes of old Drury have been proud to have a Jayne among their graduating numbers, so are we; we have "Chick". Following in the footsteps of his brothers, he has gone in for athletics. He showed his stuff during the last two years in football. Paul was another one whom the band claimed and he tried his best to drown out the other twenty-five clarinetists. "Chick" has always been a hard worker in anything he has undertaken. He leaves Drury, known and liked by all, to go to Williams.

married

KENNETH EDWARD JONES "Punkie"

Rifle Club 4

Who does not know "Punkie" with his cheerful grin? It is in Chemistry that he shines. We all feel sure that when he "gets out into society", he will amass the "cold hard dollars". Throughout his four years here, he has managed to "get the idea". Although he lives near the Normal School he has, as far as we know, remained immune from the temptations of fickle woman. However, "there is a time for all things". We feel sure that he will make his mark in the world, and not by digging ditches.

Married July '32

WILLIAM JONES "Bill"

President Class 1
Band 2, 3, 4

Treasurer D. A. A. 4
Academic Board 4

Pro Merito 4

Who is that fellow with the broad grin? That is "Bill". By starting off with a bang, as president of our class in his freshman year "Bill" has, through his four short years retained all that early popularity and has continued to increase it. He is the envy of everyone when "jazzing" it on his "sax". "Bill" and his inseparable "Mac" and "Chick" are great friends with J. F. McGrory. Although a very busy person "Bill" has had time to work hard and has received a Pro Merito pin. He plans to attend M. I. T. next year.

JAMES FRANCIS KIGGINS "Jim" "Kig"

"Jim" is a victim of that dread disease, the sleeping sickness. Unfortunately, he thinks of nothing but his lady friends. What! You didn't know he had any? Why of course he has stepped out quite a bit during the past year. He is also quite a gambler. Yes—he matches pennies. Furthermore, we think, he has the makings of a good politician, i. e. he is Irish and smokes cigars.

Married June '31

RUTH JEANNE KILLIAN "Killy"

Secretary Pro Merito 4
Orchestra 4

Band 4
Class Book Staff 4

It is believed that "Killy" was sent north to influence boys to go to southern colleges. Evidently she has fulfilled her mission for at least two of our boys are going to southern schools next year. They evidently believe that if there are more at home like her they had better start there as soon as possible. Ruth has tinkled the bells in the band in a way which has made her corner of the stage very interesting for the saxophones. Baseball stars also find her very likable.

Married June '32

RUTH FRANCIS KOENIG "Ruth"

Ruth has gone her way quietly through Drury. She has not cared especially for sports, but nevertheless she has made many warm friends. The most interesting thing about Ruth is that a certain young "Billie" has her heart bound sure and fast, and we guess that Ruth has her vocation already chosen. Although not especially vociferous, Ruth has a charm that will clear her path wherever she may go. Next year she will attend Russell Sage.

JOSEPH KRONICK "Joe" "Nat"

Basketball 4

In a far off corner in Miss Miller's room, "Joe" can be seen any day reading the Sporting Page of the Republican. He was especially interested during the Basketball season, because he was one of "Genial-Bill's" athletes. He also maintains a strong interest in his studies. Last winter he was regarded as the "Nat Holman" of Drury. He plans to enter the great field of Dentistry in the future.

Married 1933

SOPHIE KRONICK

Here is the girl with the twinkling toes, for how Sophie can dance! Who knows but that someday her name will be blazing from the electric light signs on Broadway, and we will feel proud to have been her classmates. In spite of her Terpsichorean tendencies, she is not too light-headed, for her name has been always on the honor roll. Best of all she is perpetually happy and ready to cheer every one of us.

LAWRENCE LADD

Band 2, 3, 4

Although Lawrence has been at Drury four years we have heard of him rarely. Except when he is engaged in playing his "sax" he is a very quiet chap. He certainly surprised all of us when he appeared in a pair of real corduroy knickers. We admire his courage in taking all the "razz" which goes with this strange sort of dress.

*Married
July, 1932*

VICTOR FRANKLIN LAMB "Vic"

It is rumored that "Vic", with his friend "Fred" furnished the inspiration for a novel by Blasco Ibanez, entitled the "Enemies of Women". Although this has never been proved, the suspicion is not entirely groundless. Radio has claimed them, and for the last two or three years they have discussed nothing but hookups, neutrodynes, amateur stations and the like. But "Vic" has not let outside interests affect his standing in scholarship. He does a good grade of steady work which his teachers admire. Although he has never been called "Silent", this cognomen would fit him. Lately he has stepped out as a full-fledged soda-jerker. After he receives a degree from R. P. I., he will probably irrigate the Sahara Desert, or do something equally tremendous.

ROY LAMON "Roy"

Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4

Captain Baseball 4

Roy is a very easy going fellow. Except at mealtime he is never in a hurry. Although formerly very bashful he has now turned out to be a full-fledged lady-killer. He has featured his four years at the national pastime. In recognition of his great work last year he was elected captain of the Baseball Team where his fielding has made him one of the main cogs of Coach Sullivan's machine.

VIOLA ELIZA LAMOREAUX "Vi"

Glee Club 4

You don't need to use an ear trumpet to tell when "Vi" is coming, for she delights in making a lot of noise. Like many of the rest of us, she enjoys everything that is going on. When the measles came along, "Vi" got them, and had a two weeks vacation. Possibly she did it on purpose. Viola is a good sport, and there isn't a joke going 'round that she isn't in on. We are not sure whether Viola will don a white apron and cap or continue to play with books next year.

Married

HESTER LEE

Glee Club 4

Who'll ever forget that Red Headed Mamma? But she isn't that kind of a mamma. No wild life for Hester. All the same she's a heart-breaker. Everyone knows about these "Titian Haired Home-wreckers". But seriously, Hester is the kind of a girl that men don't forget. She hasn't said much while she has been here but she has been steadily "getting the idea".

Married

LUDGER LEMOINE "Jerry"

Football 3

Jerry came to us in our junior year and since that time has made himself very popular with both the boys and the girls. He has acquitted himself well in his studies and has even found time for an occasional nap during school hours. We believe that if the Berkshire Street Railroad ever went out of business, Jerry, strengthened by his nightly walks to the west end would soon become a shining light in the Olympic track team.

Married Oct. '29

TILLIE LEMPERT

If silence were golden, Tillie would be a millionaire. She has gained quite a reputation as to the amount of talking she does—not do. But even though she does not make a lot of noise she certainly loves a good time, and can take a joke and tell one in the most approved manner.

CELIA LESS “Celia”

Associate Editor Class Book 4

Celia’s surname has nothing to do with her ability as a student. In fact they always leave Celia’s name all set up down at the Transcript, so that it will always be ready for next month’s honor roll. Miss Miller always demands a slip from her after Sadye has been absent. It must be convenient to have someone to shift your troubles to. Celia is undecided as to what she will do next year.

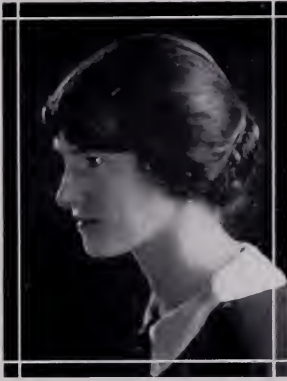

Married June '32

SADYE LESS

Sadye’s name is Less but she always calls for more. She really has an enormous appetite for a thin girl. She loves a good time and enjoys herself everywhere she goes. When the teachers caution her about talking in the corridors, she invariably says, “Why do they pick on me?” Never mind, Sadye, “it doesn’t mean anything.” We all know you’re a good worker.

Maude Ellen Lincoln

MAUDE ELLEN LINCOLN

Pro Merito 4

Maude is one of our quiet girls but she has a great deal of class spirit just the same. She is always on hand to cheer our teams and will ever offer a helping hand to a needy one. Maude was one of the last girls in our class to have her hair bobbed but she finally bowed to Dame Fashion late in the season of 1925. Maude intends to go to Normal School next year and we know she will make a success there even as she has at Drury.

JOHN LIVERMORE "Jack"

Track 3, 4

Captain Track 4

If a tall, good-looking boy rushes down the hall with his arm stiffly crooked before him and suddenly shouts "Hy! Fella!" do not be alarmed or assume an attitude of defense for it is merely Jack Livermore's idea of a hearty greeting. Jack does everything in this same whole-hearted manner. This characteristic, coupled with the fact that he is a natural-born athlete won for him the captaincy of the Track Team. On the other hand he has distinguished himself as a follower of the terpsichorean art and was voted the best dancer in the class.

ELLEN JANE LOWE

Some people think of Ellen as merely a quiet girl but to those who know her best she is a jolly, witty friend. She is always in the center of the fun and her laugh can be heard often resounding thru the corridors. Ellen has never worried much about her studies but she has always succeeded in getting by. She is undecided as to what she will do next year.

9.22 1925

ANNA ELIZABETH LUTHAUSER

Anna arrived at Drury a quiet and unassuming maiden but it wasn't long before she set things humming and she has kept all of us guessing since then. She is one of the happiest, and best natured as well as most popular girls in the business section. Although she was forced to leave school on account of illness during her senior year we will never forget her cheerful and sunny disposition. She has always had a ready smile for everyone and has always been willing to listen to her friends' confidences, be they sad or happy.

GERTRUDE FERGUSON LYONS "Curlie" "Gert"

Class Vice-president 2
Drury Service Corps 4

Dramatic Club 4
Glee Club 4

Here's "Curlie", one of the beloved girls of '25 who, helped by a natural "baby stare" and curly brown locks, usually has her own way. Our boys think "Gert's" a "peach", and although she's an incorrigible sleepy-head, she manages to get to school on time, but we're not vouching her wide-awakeness in classes. The town to the South attracts Gert, but a few "Don Juans" of Drury have succeeded in making "Curlie" look twice. Next year she intends to attend Normal School.

"Mac's" red speedster is well-known on all the highways and on many byways of this famous metropolis and his gigantic "sax" is equally famed in musical circles, but "Mac", himself, though seemingly eclipsed by these two possessions of his, has achieved a fine popularity by his droll wit and cynical good-humor. "Stu" has a good opinion of the products of the balmy southland and will next year pursue his studies at the University of Alabama.

JAMES MACLAREN "Jimmie"

"Jimmie" is another one of our Berkshire Street Railway boosters. Although he comes from Briggsville, he has some good qualities; he is dignified and Scotch. He is considerably interested in the manufacture of Ice Cream and in other sweets.

Here's Agnes, the scintillating captain of our famous girls' basketball team. She has made many friends in Drury because of her happy-go-lucky ways. Lessons never bother her, for her imagination is a great help. Whatever she may do next year, she will carry on, both in friendship and studies, for though mischievous, she is made of "sterner stuff".

Married Aug. 32

JOHN MALLOY "Jack"

Basketball 4

West Point 1931

Baseball 4

This sheiky looking individual has the reputation of being the only boy in the Five Roads gang that uses "Slickum". Jack's shining hair and ability to trip a nimble foot are both well known here. Miss Sherman's room is the lair of this most persistent of people. Every afternoon he frequents that sanctum sanctorum between the hours of two and five, and he persists in his studies tenaciously. Jack has helped a lot both on the Baseball and Basketball teams with his left handed ability.

Married Aug. 1932

ALICE HELEN MARKO

This fair lady came to us out of the mist of the morning. Alice came from the Conway High School, where she was very well liked. After being with us a short time, she followed the call of business. The class of '25 certainly has missed her in their classes.

FREDERICK MAUSERT "Fritz"

Basketball 3, 4

Football 3, 4

Fritz is quite the boy at High School. He was drafted into the D. S. C. and now keeps the "hoi polloi" in the straight and narrow during lunch period. During the Basketball season his daring manner of play puzzled the opposing forwards. During the whole year his charming manner has enticed a certain little actress who lives in far off Clarksburg.

The reader will see from the above list that "Mac" is a doer. Oyez. He also holds the enviable record of having the curliest hair in the Senior class. Some of the beloved (?) female members of this class, none of whom interest him in the least, seem to think him grouchy. But such is not the case. He sees the utter folly in the "gad-about way these young people have" and is above it. Gordon Smith's attitude towards Dulcy was exactly the same as John's attitude toward all women. Yale is fortunate in having him enrolled in its honored fold.

PAUL FRANCIS MEANEY

Band 2, 3, 4

Here is "Billy, the boy artist". His ability in that line of work makes us think that he will do big things. It will be a blow to the band when he stops blowing in it. In scholarship, the teachers say that he is like Chesterfield cigarettes, he satisfies.

M. Meaney

EVELYN KAY MEIKLEJOHN "Evie"

Pro Merito 4

"Evie" is one of our future teachers and we know she will be a good one. Evelyn's greatest accomplishment is playing the piano but she is also a conscientious scholar and all-round good sport. She has a smile for everyone and her feelings can't be hurt even though her bobbed locks are called red. Ev's ability to do Latin prose has been a wonderful help to many of her classmates, and the Church St. hall of learning that she will attend next year is indeed fortunate in securing so brilliant a pupil.

Married 1932

161

HARRY MELCHER "Harry"

Harry has a happy-go-lucky disposition and infrequent is the thing that worries him. Although he has made himself heard by few he has made himself liked by all. The only occasion in which he takes to express himself is during the music period where his singing adds volume if not harmony to the chorus.

Married - 1931

WILLIAM EDWARD MESSIER "Eddie"

Band 2, 3, 4

Orchestra 4

Eddie entered school with the determination to acquire an education. From the first day of his Freshman year to this he has not taken a book home. He, undoubtedly believed that he would be running a great risk of losing them. One of Eddie's strong points was the readiness and facility which he could manufacture excuses, a faculty he used unselfishly in helping out his friends as well as in extricating himself.

JAMES DERBY MONTGOMERY "Derb" "D"

Class President 3

Baseball 3, 4

Student Council 3, 4

Class book 4

Pro Merito 4

This spring "Derb" is the victim of unfortunate circumstances. We might make a ditty about it, entitled, "He just learned one-hand driving, but his father sold the car." He was all set to breeze down church street this summer and astonish the natives. In the words of Bill Parker, "that's tough luck". "Derb" made a splendid class president last year. His name is usually seen both in the Honor Roll and the Baseball lineup. Next year he decides to offer his services to Williams.

Married

HELEN RUTH MONTGOMERY

Vice President 3

Glee Club 4

Drum Major Band 4

As Drum Major, Helen certainly is "high hat". That can be taken either literally or exactly. The world admires the Drury Band, especially when Helen, with her rigging of purple and gold, and poodle dog curls, is leading it. In fact the world would endure anything, even the girl's Glee Club for a sight of Helen, Helen of the many smiles and the many love affairs.

Married - 1931

MARGARET MONTGOMERY "Peg"

Pro Merito 4

There are three things necessary in a modern girl: a charming personality, self reliance, and good looks. Margaret has all of these qualities. Besides these, Peg has a faculty for talking which sometimes threatens to get her into trouble. She is often so enthralled in what she is saying that the words tumble out of her mouth with a rapidity quite annoying to her teachers.

.....

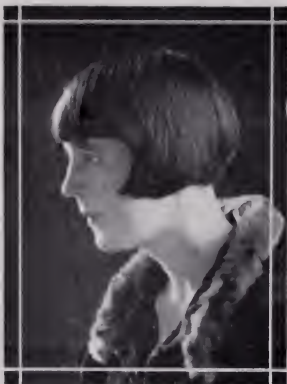

PAULINE LORETTA MORISSEY "Paul"

Pauline, or preferably Paul, has taken rather a mixed course here at school. She started in with the Classical Course but later changed to the Business Curriculum. However, in spite of these fickle tendencies she can make any class interesting with her witty answers and her love of debate. She will have a chance to practice these two on Mr. Smith at the Normal next year.

LOUIS MOROCCO "Louie"

"Louie" is one of those rare individuals who have gone through Drury, and made many friends and no enemies. He has a reputation among his classmates of being a quiet fellow, but to see him play Basketball on the Whirlwinds—well you would have to change your mind.

Married

HELEN MURPHY

Helen is usually quiet, but when she does speak you hear something worth while, for she always means just what she says. Helen has not made herself famous with a loud voice, flashy colors, or the like, but rather it is her gentle speech, her modesty that makes us proud to call her our friend. The business world calls her, and we know that she will succeed.

IRENE YVONNE MURRAY

Orchestra 4

Glee Club 4

Did you ever see Irene without seeing Ruth and Dot also? These three are very good friends and make up a very happy trio. Irene, though she spends most of her time with this trio, nevertheless has a smile for everyone, after all. Next year she intends to go to Normal School.

married

HARRY NEVILLE "Harry"

Harry was the most diminutive of all of us when we were Freshmen and has continued to lead us in lack of size since that time. He was the last of us to go into long pants. Although he appears quiet and reserved he seldom lets anything worry him. In spite of the fact that he inconsiderately shot himself last year he has managed to catch up with us.

Married

DORIS JEAN NIXON

Pro Merito 4
Band 3, 4

Soccer 3, 4
Class Historian 4

Doris has been in our midst for the entire school course of five long years. For a little girl she is quite a heart-breaker and her swains are numerous and bitterly jealous. She loves to ride and her favorite car is the Studebaker. Greene is her favorite "color". Next year Doris intends to take a post graduate course and then she will travel down to Smith.

LOUIS NOEL "Toot"

This bright-looking young man is none other than the famous "Toot" whose "Springfield" is such a help to us in ascertaining the daily sporting news. "Toot" has never distinguished himself much as a grind. In fact school work, or anything else for that matter has never worried him. He had no difficulty in subduing the wild steers of Arizona, and no doubt his title of "Cowboy" is well earned.

Married June 1924

GUSTAVE NOETZEL "Gus" "Red" "Plumber"

Football 2, 3, 4

Gus, the best looking red-haired male in the senior class is a quite personage among the weaker sex. Since he began working at the Wilson House Drug Store the patronage at that noted emporium has magnified with a steadiness that must be extremely gratifying to Mr. Norcott. Gus juggles the fruit juices with the best of them and his cheerful line enhances the enjoyment of the customers.

Married
June 32

RICHARD BULLARD NORCOTT "Dick"

Class President 1

Band 2, 3, 4

Pro Merito 4

Manager Basketball 4

This is "Dick" the lad who is forever choosing a new girl to lavish his affections on. "Dick" has not happened to select many from our own class. It is needless to remark that he is well liked by his classmates. He would like very much to be a social lion. From the vote of the girls, he has very nearly achieved this ambition. Besides being a Pro Merito member he has found time to manage the baseball team and play in the band.

MARY O'HALLORAN

Academe Staff 3

Editor Academe 4

Pro Merito 4

The memory which we shall keep in our minds the longest is one of Mary giving a perfect recitation. She has quite easily maintained highest honors every month and it is hard to visualize her in the role of the unprepared student. But she is not a grind, far from it. She can entice real jazz from a piano, and recite like Marie Dressler. She is changeable, one minute she is easy-going, the next she is very serious. But probably that is the temperament that goes with genius, that she shows in her hard position as Editor of the Academe. Drury is favored with her presence next year.

Pro Merito 4

DOROTHY PACKARD "Dot"

Art of Editor Academe 4

Dot blew in from Charlemont in our Junior year. Shortly after her arrival an order was issued by the School Committee prohibiting the marring or defacing of all desks or other furniture. This privilege of decorating our school barred, Dot resigned herself to the inevitable and took the next best, that is, decorating the Academe. Here she found her opportunity and we will defy any School paper in the country to produce better cuts. Dot is terribly bashful with us but the report is that she favors the "Town Boys".

FRANCES KATHERINE PARRIS "Fran"

Band 3, 4

Basketball 2, 3, 4

Frances is one of the best athletes in the school, and, more important than that, she is one of the best sports as well. She captained the girls basketball team in her Sophomore year, and she has always shone on the court. She intends to enter Wheaton next year. If they have a good team there after she arrives, we will know that she is carrying on as she has done here.

ALBERT PATASHNICK "Bemmie" "Collar" "Nate"

"Where's the paper?" Ah! we know that "Nate" has arrived. Here is a fan, if there ever was one. It seems as though the "Springfield Republican" prints a Sporting Page merely for his benefit. When it comes to school-work, even though, "it's all new stuff," "Collar", while not excelling, does steady, consistent work which our beloved (?) faculty like. We wonder how Miss Hall will exist without him. Although he has cast many amorous glances during the third period and otherwise, so far he has remained immune from feminine charms, but in the future, who knows?

married

MARGARET PAYNE "Peg"

Quiet people are often small, and a shy nature is so often the complement of a small form that it is sometimes quite a shock to us that to discover that large persons can be shy and retiring, and that anyone can be at once both conspicuous and unobtrusive. Yet here, in Margaret, we have an illustration which is as unusual as gratifying in this age of talkative egotism. "Peg is divinely tall" and has as well the golden gift of silence.

Instruction

M. Phelps

CLIFFORD PHELPS "Brute" "Santa Claus"

Well, look! Here is Santa Claus. Ever since "Brute" played the part of that imaginary gentleman to a group of excited youngsters in the Boston Store at Christmas, that name has stuck to him. And well might his nickname be "Bandy", instead of "Santa", for that is the exact color of his hair. But then red hair has its attractions. Meadow Street holds some of his affections. For "Brute" has fallen! One whom we would least expect. Et Tu Brute!

DOROTHY FLAGG PIERCE "Dot"

During her four years at Drury the sight of Dot has brought joy to a great many boys for when they see her they know they are ready to eat. She works in the Lunch Room Kitchen. Her ability as a cornetist is appreciated in the "world's largest high school band". Like many of Drury she plans to follow the profession of Clara Barton and next year she will start training at our local hospital.

M. Flagg 1126
Died 1933 Dec.

Married 1931

FREDERICK HALL POTTER "Fred" "Speed"

Band 2, 3, 4

Treasurer of Band 4

Here's the most important member of the Drury High School Band, the treasurer. "Fred", is also, with "Vic" one of our worst radio fans. In addition to this he is some football player. If Mr. Sullivan should see him play in front of Miss Radlo's house, he would realize that he has missed some good varsity material. "Fred" has also managed to do good work and is well liked by his teachers. In the future we are sure he will keep up to the standard he has set.

Married Oct. '32

JOSEPH POZZI "Jo"

"Jo" is always on hand with his glasses, his short legs, and his inexhaustible supply of wise cracks. His hobby is Math, and he has become a "shark" in that subject. In fact the number of originals he has solved compares favorably with the number of Caesar's conquests.

ARTHUR FRANCIS RAIDY "Art" "Wonderful Arthur"

Football 4

Meet the hero, the football star, and general lady's man. He is as "hard as they make 'em", and admits it too. However "Art" has a few soft spots somewhere. Lessons are usually the least of his cares and we often wonder how he manages to get the marks that he does. "Art" drives a Ford around town; after school you usually see him, always with her. Yes I said "her". All Fords are not automobiles.

Married 1936

Died Nov. 1936

EDNA RALSTON

Secretary of Pro Merito 4

Edna is neither one of our social butterflies, nor one of our noisy girls. Thru her gentle and kind ways she has won many friends. She enters Normal in the fall, and we know that she will be a good instructor for the young idea.

Married Aug. 3-

JEANIE ANDERSON RENTON

Band 3, 4

Pro Merito 4

Here is the little girl who has stuck with her class although she has been out of school for quite a time this year. Though she is no grind Jeanie has been principally interested in studying, a liking which probably grows out of her extremely conscientious nature.

JOHN RICE "Jack"

Band 2, 3, 4

Jack is one of the workers of the class. Not only has he shone in class work but he is also one of our best and most hardened lady killers. The old adage that "every one loves a fat man" seems to be especially true in his case for his remarkable manner and elegant poise have won him many admiring glances. When Jack has not been at school or burning the midnight oil, he has been driving his father's car. Fortunately the pater sold the limousine for Jack, had he continued to exceed the speed limits of the town he would have become a dangerous rival of Ralph de Palma's.

Married

JOHN HENRY ROBARE "Henry"

Band 2, 3, 4

Class Book Staff 4

Class Play 4

Class Prophet 4

We have become a firm believer that, "reading maketh a full man". All doubts are removed since we first met "Henry". Surely there is no more zealous reader in school, and there is no one who can act so nearly inebriated as he can. Whether his reading is the agent in causing this intoxicated state remains to be seen but as his forte consists of jokes which we usually read ourselves later in such august publications as "College Humor" or "Life", there seems to be little doubt of it. As his namesake, "Henry" in "Dulcy", John proved himself to be a perfect butler. One of Mr. Chamber's worries for next year will be John's absence from the band as he has been in that worthy gathering since it started. After a year of Industrialism, John plans to enter N. Y. U.

ERNEST ROSASCO "Ernie"

Although he has not been a social lion, "Ernie" has made many friends at Drury. When he entered school, he was of quite rotund proportions but, at the advice of his friend he began taking Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compounds, and now at last he has dwindled down to a mere 210 pounds. Congratulations, "Ernie".

SYLVIA ROSASCO

"Who is Sylvia"? Here she is. During her course at Drury, she has spent most of her time in the section of the building where Commercial subjects are taught. It is only the very brave young men who go to call on her, for her uncle is a "pleeceman". Next year she will enter the great field of Business.

married

FRANK ROSCH "Frankie" "Wallop" "Crack"

Football 2, 3, 4

Captain Football 4

Frank led the 1924 football team through a difficult season without a defeat. More than once his spirit and fight have pulled the team out of a hole. The sports writers of the county recognized his ability and he was chosen as an All Berkshire tackle.

married

NORMAN ROSCH "Duteh" "Crack" "Norm"

Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4

Football 1, 2, 3, 4

Class Pres. 2

Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4

Captain Basketball 3, 4

Class Sec-Treas. 3

Norm is the only three letter man in the senior class. Also he has collected more "joolry" by his playing than any other boy in school. He is the proud owner of two gold footballs, a basketball, and is well on his way towards a second baseball. He has captained the Basketball team for two years and held down a guard position there. He was a halfback in football and guarded the keystone sack with the wielders of the ashen bludgeons.

Marion

CELIA RYAN "Curlie"

Band 3, 4

Celia is not only a friend to all the girls, but because of her pleasant disposition is well-liked by everyone. How empty the days in Gym will be when she is no longer dancing about. Her merry smile has brightened up many gloomy days. In Normal she will probably do the same.

MAE SALKIN "Bunny"

Pro Merito 4

"Bunny" is the big girl who always keeps the class laughing at her sayings and "wise cracks". In spite of themselves, the teachers have to give way to their mirth at times, for she is irresistable. Her supply of jokes never seems to run out. Nevertheless, she does not neglect her studies. Bunny's ambitions lie in the direction of the stage, and we have an idea that she will become, some day, one of America's leading actresses.

HELEN CHASE SAVAGE

Glee Club 4

Pro Merito 4

Helen is a shy little girl but really sweet to those who know her. Although she has been in Drury five long years she has successfully dispelled those faltering calories offered by the lunch room. She is a remarkable singer and when Helen reaches those high notes she leaves her classmates far below. In addition to this she is a dancer of note and was conspicuous in the Kiwanis Revue.

JOSEPH SCARPITTO "Joe"

Baseball 2, 3, 4

"Joe" is a boy who believes strictly in tending to his own business. He is an industrious worker but is so exceedingly quiet that if it weren't for his athletic prowess we wouldn't have heard of him at all. However as the mainstay of the Baseball team for the past two years he has pitched us to many a victory and has won fame for himself as well as for the school.

Oct 3 1940

ROSE SHAPIRO

Band 3, 4

Who is the girl with the rose-petal complexion? Why, that is Rose. It's all natural and that is not merely the trade mark on the box. We wonder why she likes the corner seat during the fifth period class. What can be the attraction? When Rose leaves, the Band will lose a good musician, for among her many other accomplishments is included saxophone playing.

Married ✓

MARY GERALDINE SHEEHAN "Gerry"

Band 3, 4

Basketball 4

Pro Merito 4

Yes, and here is "Gerry", one of the "Hard Hearted Hannahs" from the Five Roads. She is another member of the Famous Chambers' Players, as many of her neighbors will tell you. You all know of her athletic ability; as a basketball player she is way above par. In the future, who can tell?

JOHN SIMMONS

Band 3, 4

Academe 4

Class Book Staff 4

The bond of affection existing between the undertakers guild and the medical profession is well-known but we had never suspected the existence of any bonds between the former and the contractor's union until we met John. Mr. Simmons is a firm believer in "hitching his wagon to a star" and, indeed, probably nothing short of a celestial body would enable him to climb East Main St. Although Wentworth Institute will claim him next year we are pretty sure that neither will his mind be on his work nor will his heart be there.

Married 1933

HILTON ALBERT SMITH

Pro Merito 4

Married 1933

The nearness of Hilton's home to the Normal School has produced two startling and curious effects on him. In the first place, as may have been expected, he has assimilated the desire for learning that his surroundings impart and he has shone as a scholar of note. Mr. Thomas has very often declared that he would "certify that boy". On the other hand, however, the bevy of fair females that besport themselves about Hilt's home have so either frightened or shocked him that he has grown up with a deep-rooted shyness for the other sex, a characteristic which keeps him out of a lot of trouble.

WINIFRED SPARROW

Pro Merito 4

It is extremely difficult to get acquainted with Winifred but the task is worth the result. She has uncommon depth of character — a worth-while attribute in these wild days. Moreover, she has a very strong mind, forming her own opinions and keeping them regardless of anyone else. Beneath all this she holds concealed a deep sense of humor. She will take these qualities to Middlebury with her next year.

MARION RUDMAN SPENCER "Penny"

Glee Club 4

Pro Merito 4

"Penny" is the girl who can get highest honors by doing her home-work in half an hour and then can manage to take in a church supper or a movie nearly every night. She can do as much Latin and Greek in the X Period as most of us can do in an afternoon. Marion is not a flapper — she has too many brains for that, but she makes a darn good chorus girl as all the Kiwanians will testify. She is also a peach of a driver, even when there is another car on the road.

Student Council 4

All hail! The chief of the Drury Service Corps. Maurice is the first to have that highly honored position and we are sure that his name and reputation will always be passed down in history, as that of the most efficient and capable of all marshalls. Sincerity marks all of Maurice's endeavors, and as a scenario writer he has yet to be surpassed. His indomitable courage and eloquent appeal went straight to the hearts of those who saw him in the class play. He is interested in the field of Foreign Service and plans to enter Georgetown University next year.

Married July '29

MAJEL HELENA SMITH

Pro Merito 4

Property Mgr. Class Play 4

Majel is a member of the quiet group of Twenty-five. Nevertheless she is always ready for any good that may come her way. She is very practical and dependable as her teachers have found out. Her report card has seldom showed anything but A's during all of her high school course. Even close acquaintance with the Normal School girls has not made her a flapper. In fact we much prefer her to that type of maiden with bobbed hair, bobbed dresses and bobbed hose. Majel has determined to become a teacher.

WILLIAM BRADFORD SMITH "Brad"

Band 2, 3, 4

"Brad", our silent, quiet, thoughtful classmate will some day we are sure, be a great physician or chemist. Besides working at the hospital after school hours, he has shown great interest in the study of chemistry and physics. We are familiar with "Brad's" interest in girls. As yet not a single one has made any impression on him. For three years he has been blowing lustily on his clarinet and we wouldn't be terribly surprised if he could, by this time produce one mellow tone, at least, from this squeaking instrument.

English Prof.

Married

ROSE SOKOLOW

The sound of Rose's sweet voice is always welcome. Her pleasing, graceful manner will be valuable assets in the business world, which she plans to enter. We have faith that she will make the world proud of the products of the Commercial Department of Drury.

SOLOMON SPITZER "Sol"

Class Book 4

Although the stronger glory of his far-famed brother has eclipsed part of his glory, "Sol" is well-liked here. Unlike Mawruss he is very quiet but absorbs knowledge like a sponge, to use a homely simile. He should be able to write a book on the "Art of Walking", as he has quite a "hike" to school and back. He believes in living away from the hustle and bustle of the city. With Maurice as his guide and counsellor throughout life, we feel safe about, "Sol".

HELEN SPORING

Helen is one of our quietest girls, and has not made herself very well-known at Drury. Perhaps it is just as well that we heard no startling things about her for we have heard them about enough already. We do not know what she is to do next year but we do know that if she adheres to her policy of minding her own business, she will be a success.

Maurice Dec. 21

Maurice

THEODORE BRYCE SPRUILL "Teddy"

Band 2, 3, 4

Orchestra 3, 4

"Teddy" is one of, if not the most gentlemanly young man in our class. He has seemed a little quiet and unassuming to most of his classmates. However those who know him best are familiar with his loud, cheerful laugh. This happy spirit has made "Teddy" very well liked by both boys and girls. Seldom has there been an athletic contest which he has not attended. Since he is musically inclined, the band, orchestra and glee club can ill afford to lose him. Bryce's ability at Math. will be a great help to him next year at M. I. T.

GERALDINE STEBBINS "Gerry"

Pro Merito 4

Though Priscilla Alden commanded John to "Speak for himself", "Gerry" is more interested in letting him know whom to speak to, and she believes she is the only proper person for him to address. In spite of the fact that Gerry might be classed as a flapper on account of her dancing which has not always met with the approval of the faculty, she does not possess the quality of fickleness which often characterizes that species. In fact she is constancy personified. Her motto is "Eyes Right—down Elmwood Avenue".

Married

MARION STEELE "Marion"

Glee Club 4

Marion always has an opinion about everything and is always ready to express it. Her good spirits can never be restrained and rise to the surface on any occasion. Marion is undecided as to what she will do next year but we are sure that if she can find nothing better she can easily earn a living by posing for tooth paste advertisements.

Married

ESTHER MARTHA SWARTZER

Esther is one of our commercial Seniors, besides being an all-around sport. When she is called on in a dull period we all awaken from our slumbers and look intelligent, for we know that she is going to say something interesting. Some say that Esther is "quiet but dangerous" when angry. We sometimes get a glimpse of this stubborn streak in English. Esther just adores History. If it isn't History, it is the —, don't get excited, but, nevertheless she does.

NORMA VICTORIA TADIELLO

French Club 4

Glee Club 4

Pro Merito 4

Norma is one of those girls whom we seldom see frowning or grumblng. She is always cheerful and usually smiling. Norma and Ruth are inseparables, and when we see smiling Ruth Erickson we know that Norma is close at hand. Norma likes books, a fact that is attested by the little Pro Merito pin of which she is so proud. We hear that she is to attend the Normal School next year.

Married

RACHAEL THERRIEN "Rae"

Tennis Club 3, 4

Dramatic Club 4

Soccer 4

Here's Rae, the best little sport ever; she takes in games, proms, dances, and excells in swimming. The "Y" holds her as its own. Her tastes run to cleanliness for she has a firm faith in laundries and their owners, (especially future ones). Her heart has held but one favorite during her four years at Drury although others have cast amorous glances at her. She hopes to conquer the world at the New Haven School of Gymnastics next year.

Married June 1921

DORIS THOMPSON

It has been a pleasure to have had Doris with us. We have found her to be a most willing, cooperative and lovable scholar. Doris is a girl to whom we always go with our troubles. She never failed to listen sympathetically and to cheer us up with a "Never mind". Wherever she goes, or whatever she does, we wish her the same success and happiness she has often wished us.

Married

ETHEL THOMAS

This is Ethel, a quiet little lady with the never-failing giggle. She certainly hasn't talked her way through Drury, but her sunny disposition has won her many friends, including a certain "all-around good fellow". As a rooter, Ethel has no equal. She has been a mainstay in the cheering section for four years.

RUTH VEAZIE

Drury Service Corps 4

Ruth is a girl who has a smile for everyone, no matter what her personal feelings are she always hides them under a smile. Ruth's attendance at all games, local and otherwise is considered a valuable aid in achieving victory. Whatever her position in life may be, we know that her pleasing manner will bring her good-fortune.

Married 1931

MARION VIALL

Marion is a member of the quiet class. Often we have seen her guiding the girls to lunch. She belongs to the world's greatest order or lodge. This body is well known to the students of Drury as the Service Corp. Next year she is to take up her studies at Normal.

Glee Club 4

Julia has perhaps done as much for Drury in her four years here as any other girl. She has worked conscientiously and well, not only keeping on highest honors but working on the Academe, the Student Council, and the Service Corps as well. Her strong point is her ability to keep up a steady flow of conversation about nothing in particular. We extend our deepest sympathies to Smith College which will have to put up with her for four years.

HELEN LOUISE WARNER "Helen"

Band 3, 4

Helen is the girl who likes Drury so well that she comes to it from far-off White Oaks. She was unfortunate in having to make up a large part of her Senior year's work which she missed on account of illness but she has courageously overcome this difficulty. Helen is a pianist of no small degree of skill and her friends predict that she will soon be broadcasting over the radio.

ROBERT WELLS "Bob"

Band 4

"Bob" has a number of things to his credit. He flashed into the limelight in his third year, when he was the "dark horse" of Drury's first Tennis Tournament. He would no doubt have won the cup if he had not been called out of town the day that the finals were to take place. He was also one of "Genial Bill" Sullivan's charges for three years. Although he did not win his "D", he went on many trips, and pointed many fallacies of the team to the coach. His lung power in playing his big horn has helped to make the Drury Band what it is today.

Married-June '30

SOPHIA WEST

Sophia is that little blonde member of the trio which trolleys over from Greylock every morning in search of knowledge. When Sophia first came to us as a sub-freshman, she was the proud possessor of luxuriant curls, which were the envy of every girl in the class. When she reached the rank of Senior, the age of discretion, she had her crown of glory shorn. Sophia's name has always been a constant source of worry and exasperation to her. Matters reached a climax recently when Mr. Thomas unwittingly called on "Sofa West".

CHARLOTTE DYKES WILCOX

Soccer 3, 4

Glee Club 4

Charlotte is one of our athletic girls. She ran off with one of the prizes at the girls' track meet and played soccer for two years. She uses her voice to good advantage in the Glee Club and also during the "X" period in study hall "C". Charlotte's quite a worker, in fact we can't keep up with her. Next year she thinks she will spend in Normal School.

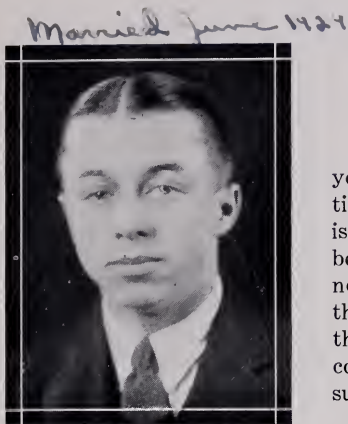

Married

Married June 1932

GLADYS WILKIN

Our Orator and History teacher, Mr. Thomas called her Grace all year, but, what's the difference? "What's in a name?" Romeo said that a rose by another name would be just as sweet. We have a lot to be thankful for to the Berkshire Street Railway. It brought Gladys and many other Drury students to school every morning. We know that Gladys will cause good-fortune wherever she goes.

WINSLOW STUART WILLIAMS "Winnie"

Band 3, 4

Rifle Club 4

Here is another, like "Red", who is a member of the younger married set. You have all heard that "the exception proves the rule", here is a living instance. The rule is, "opposites attract each other". But, "Winnie" has been seen often with a member of the Junior Class who is not exactly tall. "Winnie" evidently believes that "good things come in small packages". Last year he decided that the band needed his presence, so he improved it with his company. He is undecided as to his future, but we are sure that he is too fast to be a plumber.

JAMES RAYMOND WILSON "Jim" "Jimmy"

Band 4

Although he has been with us for but one short year, we all like "Jim". He has joined our band and plays a "wicked solo trumpet". He is a quiet chap, but "still water runs deep". "Jimmy" has not broken any feminine hearts yet, but they have been known to pulsate with more rapidity when he was near. In a few years he will hang out a shingle, reading, Dr. J. R. Wilson, M. D., Ph. D. We will all be his patients, for, you know, a doctor needs patience.

Band 3, 4

Student Council 4

"There was a sound of revelry by night in Drury's halls." Was Florence there? We'll say she was, but dancing isn't the only thing she can do. She is one of the very few who can go to all our social affairs and still make "A's" on her reports. Besides being a star scholar Florence is always ready to help her class. The Student Council holds her as one of its members, and she is also in the band. She has often been on the auditorium platform to address the school. Florence intends to enter Normal School next year.

Prophecy on Prophets

ON MY return to the East in 1945, business brought me to the office of a leading Boston newspaper and upon asking for an interview with the Editor I was informed that Mr. Groark was busy but would be free shortly. The name for the moment struck me as familiar but it left my mind, as the headlines of the morning newspaper attracted my attention. "Don" Coughlin former All American Halfback had just accepted the position as Football coach at Yale. As I was reading the account of football days at Drury from which he rapidly grew to fame at College, the editor's door opened and in that short, bulky figure I recognized my old schoolmate "Charlie" and as I did not recognize the tall, refined looking man to whom he was talking "Charlie" introduced me to name no other than Professor John Robare Ph. D., Head of the English Department at Harvard, who had lately become famous as a novelist and was now writing a series of editorials for the "Times", of which Charles Groark was editor and part owner. After college "Charlie" had studied law but although he was fairly successful he gave this up in order to go into the newspaper business for which he thought he was better adapted.

He suggested that we three go to the Yale-Harvard game that day. After the game at the club-house we met "Don". His smile and his shoulders had grown broader but otherwise he looked the same. At this time he signed a contract with "Charlie" in which he agreed to write the story of his life to give Young Americans an Ideal.

It surely is pleasing to again be acquainted with old class-mates who have been so successful and as I again sped towards home I wondered how many others of '25 have been so successful.

Harvey Bianco, '25

AS SOON as we docked at Moau, on one of the Society Islands of the South Seas, hundreds of canoes came scurrying to the side of our ship, the "Jessie B.", their paddlers were natives shouting their wares.

It was with a sigh of content that we looked upon the scene. At last, in 1940, "Don", "Charlie" and I had achieved our joint ambition, we were in the South Seas on a pleasure trip. On shore we could see sand, palm trees, native huts and the glaring white-washed bungalows of the Europeans and Americans, with the brilliant blue sky overhead.

After saying goodbye to some of our steamer acquaintances who were on their way to Australia, we landed. We were met by the American Consul, who welcomed us, asked us for news, and invited us for dinner, all in the same breath. Later in the evening he asked us our plans.

"Don" said, "We are going to get some guides and porters, go into the hills for a few weeks, then go back to civilization refreshed and ready for more work."

The Consul said, "But there is danger, the head-hunters and cannibals are still plentiful."

"Charlie" interrupted with, "We have plenty of rifles, and with native guides we can take care of ourselves."

In spite of his protests, after a week of preparations, our small company started. The scenery was beautiful, but travelling was lonesome, as the only person who could speak English excepting ourselves, was the Head Guide who muttered a few common expressions. We were out of communication with everyone, truly the life was primitive. If it were not for the modern equipment in our kit, we would be living as savages.

During our trip we passed through many villages where the natives seemed happy and contented. As the time was drawing to a close, we had our adventure. In one village the chief had a malignant disease which the medicine man with his dances and incantations could not cure. We, possessing a First Aid Kit, were able to help the chief. We gave him a remedy which relieved his pain.

Now, the chief offered us his crown, his hut, and his wives, all of which we refused. We stayed at this village a week and were royally treated. An incident happened here which we will never forget. One night, accompanied by the chief we went to old Toota Heva, the witch-doctor, who lived alone in his hut, at the end of the village. It was an eerie place, the hut was low and thatched with straw, on poles near the door, and inside on the walls hung dried, smoked heads that were shrunken to the size of a doll's head. There were white men's heads there as well as natives.

Then from the dimness of the hut emerged Toota Heva; he was a strange sight. Save for a scarlet loin-cloth he was naked, but the rest of his body was hideously painted with vari-

To the Class of 1927 we leave:

The right to look down upon the Seniors at least once a week.

To the Class of 1928 we leave:

This warning: Stop, read, and take to heart. You have come to the crossing. You are no longer Freshman. Mend your ways.

To the Class of 1929 and all entering classes we leave:

Four big years at Drury and the thought of how we long to be in your place, entering instead of leaving.

And thus endeth the will of Drury's biggest and best class, the Class of 1925.

OUR CLASS play "Dulcy" was given on April 23 and 24 before crowded houses who came away well satisfied with the performances they had seen. Mr. Costello was again the director, and he was assisted by Frances Bernard. John Gartman, Myrtle Garcelon, and Majel Smith were in charge of the properties while Gertrude Lyons and Ruth Gagnon were the prompters. The scenery, which surpassed anything ever shown on the auditorium stage, was designed by Mr. Pratt, and the exquisite lighting effects were the work of Mr. Wylde.

The story of the play dealt with a week-end party arranged by Dulcy, the scatter-brained wife of Gordon Smith, a young business man. In order to influence Forbes to admit her husband into a desirable jewelry merger she invites the Forbes to her home. Vincent Leach, a scenario writer, who is in love with Angela Forbes, and Schuyler Van Dyke, who is interested in Mrs. Forbes, are also invited. From the first, Dulcy's utter lack of common sense succeeds in messing things up, and only a remarkable and very fortunate train of circumstances saves her.

ON JUNE 23 we held our class banquet in the gymnasium. This was the first time it had been necessary to have a banquet there but this year the size of our class warranted such a procedure. After a delightful meal which was prepared and served by the Domestic Science Department under Miss Hamblen we sat back and listened to the array of interesting speeches prepared for us. Both the student orators and the Faculty contributed to the post-prandial exercises and their remarks were much appreciated.

colored stripes, around his neck hung a chain of human teeth, and on each arm were several bracelets woven of human hair. But the queerest sight of all was a sardine-can which was suspended from the lobe of one ear. It was the pride and joy of Toota Heva and was admired by the entire village, it was polished until it shone like a flame. He built a fire in a square that was marked off by bones and had a grinning skull at each corner; after the flames were leaping into the Stygian blackness, that surrounded the spot, Toota Heva, arose and danced around the fire three times, all the while making strange passes and mumbling and singing. Then he sat down and seemed turned to stone.

Then the chief Marimba said, "Ask him any questions that you wish.

"Don" said, to the chief who acted as interpreter, "What is the Class of 1925 from Drury High School doing now?"

Without any expression upon his face, Toota Heva began."——
